——Only a few disorderlies before the Mayor yesterday.

——Sheriff Dunn turned over his office, yesterday, to his successor. If he makes as good a sheriff as the gentleman who preceded him, no more will be asked.

——We learn by a private letter received in this city yesterday, that Mr. George Allen, the proprietor of the extensive agricultural and hardware works, Newberne, lost one child by diphtheria last Friday night two Sunday night, and another one is very sick.

——The Charlotte Observer speaks of him as "Dr Sorrell, the Secretary of the Republican State Committee," and never cracks a smile. His name is Francis, buddy, and they just call him Doc for short. Abstain from calling him "Dr." and spare our gravity.

——We understand that they sorter came the returning board over Gen Phil Hawkins down in Franklin, day before yesterday. He was elected on the board of county commissioners and they wouldn't let him qualify because he is a director on the North Carolina Railroad. It was hard, but he couldn't help himself.

The Electoral College.

The gentlemen composing the electoral college of North Carolina held an informal meeting yesterday in the executive office. Maj. A. C. Avery, the elector for the eighth district, arrived by the 2:30 p. m. train yesterday, making the college complete. The commissions of all the electors were found to be regular and there is no obstacle in the way of casting the vote. It was learned as has already been stated, that the alleged objection to Mr Glenn has fallen to the ground having become known that he not only resigned his position as a member of the Southern Claims Commission two and a half years ago, but that it was accepted.

The college met again yesterday afternoon in the Supreme Court room and caucused. It was rumored last night, about the hotels and other places of resort, that the caucus chose Gen. Leach as president of the college, and Capt Waring as the messenger to carry the vote of the State on to Washington. The college meets to day at 12 m., in the Senate chamber, when the vote of the State will be formally cast for Tilden and Hendricks. Several speeches are expected to be made on the occasion.

Masonic Grand Lodge.

The Grand Lodge of Masons of the State of North Carolina assembled in this city on yesterday evening, Grand Master George W. Blount presiding, assisted by Dr. Eugene Grissom, Deputy Grand Master, H. H. Munson, Senior Grand Warden, S. H. Rountree, Junior Grand Warden, and others.

A large number of delegates and visitors are in attendance.

The Grand Master read his annual address, which was referred to the appropriate committee.

The Grand Secretary, D W. Bain, and Grand Treasurer, W. E. Anderson, submitted their reports.

G. Badger Harris, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Correspondence, read a learned and lengthy report of the proceedings of other Grand Masonic bodies.

The election of grand officers for the ensuing year takes place this evening.

GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA.

SESSION OF 1876-'77.

SENATE.

THIRTEENTH DAY.

TUESDAY, Dec. 5.

The Senate was called to order at 11 a. m., Mr. President Robinson in the chair.

The journal of yesterday was read and approved.

Senator Nicholson asked that the journal be made to show that if he had been present he would have voted aye on Senator Robinson's resolution of instruction, introduced yesterday, regarding the Western North Carolina Railroad and the State's convicts.

PETITIONS, MEMORIALS &C.

By Senator Stickney: A memorial from certain citizens of Edgecombe against the repeal of a certain law. Calendar.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES.

Senator Scales, from the Judiciary Committee; Senator Holt, from the Finance Committee; Senator Dortch, from the Committee on Propositions and Grievances; Senator York, from the Committee on Engrossed Bills; Senator Robins, from the Finance Committee; Senator Graham, from the Finance Committee; Senator Troy, from the Finance Committee; Senator, Moore, of Mecklenburg, from the Committee on Enrolled Bills—submitted reports.

A message was received from the House announcing the adoption of certain resolutions and asking the concurrence of the Senate.

INTRODUCTION OF BILLS, &c.

By Senator Dunn: To incorporate Kinston Collegiate Institute. Committee on Corporations.

By Senator Graham: To repeal sec. 13 and amend sec. 14 of Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.

By same: To amend sec. 116, chap. 32, Battle's Revisal. Judiciary.

CALENDAR.

The bill for the relief of the sheriffs of Franklin, Nash and Wilson came up and, upon motion of Senator Williams, was indefinitely postponed.

The bill to amend chap. 89, laws of 1874-'75, came up and was indefinitely postponed upon motion of Senator Latham.

The bill to submit the question of license or no license to the qualified voters of any county was, upon motion of Senator Troy, laid upon the table.

The bill to amend so much of chap. 195, laws of 1874-'75, as applies to Edgecombe county, was, upon motion of Senator Latham, indefinitely postponed.

A message was received from the House announcing that it had passed a resolution relative to the inauguration of Gov. Vance, and asking the concurrence of the Senate.

Upon motion of Senator York, the rules were suspended, and the resolution was adopted.

The chair appointed Messrs. Stickney and Troy as the committee on the part of the Senate to take such action, under the resolution, as may seem to be necessary to prepare for the reception of the Governor-elect.

The rules were suspended and the bill in favor of David I. Moore, of Pender, made special order for 12 M. to-day, was taken up. [It provides for the payment to the person named, who lost both eyes in the Confederate service, of the sum of $50.] The committee to whom the question was referred, submitted an adverse report.

Senator Stanford took the floor, and in warm terms urged the appropriation.

Senator Moore, of New Hanover, followed in support of Senator Stanford, and offered an amendment proposing to strike out $50, and insert $100.

The amendment was lost, and the question recurring upon the resolution of Senator Stanford, it passed its second reading.

Upon the third reading, Senator Boddie moved to amend by inserting also the name of W. H. Hamilton, of Wake, who lost both eyes in the Confederate service.

Senator Folk feared that the Senate was going too fast. He wished that all of these poor men could be provided for, and if a general bill was introduced he would vote for it. He feared special legislation in such cases, and must reluctantly vote against the appropriation.

Senator Justice offered an amendment striking out the names of Moore and Hamilton and inserting, "all men who lost both eyes in the war."

Senator Sandifer offered a substitute providing that the public treasurer be authorized to pay $50 to all ex-soldiers who are bona fide residents of the State, and who lost both eyes in the service, providing that application be made within one year after the passage of the bill.

Senator Graham offered this amendment, "provided the party applying has not received commutation for this loss."

The substitute was adopted.

Senator Liles offered an amendment, striking out "war" after the word "Confederate" and insert "service."

The resolution as amended, passed its third and final reading.

A message was received from the House announcing that it had passed certain resolutions and bills, and asking concurrence.

Upon motion of Senator Folk, the rules were suspended in order that the Senate might consider the concurrent resolution just received in regard to the printing of the amended constitution.

The concurrent resolution passed its readings, and the chair appointed Senator Robins and Wilson as the Senate branch of the committee on the printing of the amended constitution.

The rules were suspended and the Senate took up the House resolution in regard to the Western North Carolina Railroad.

Senator Troy offered a resolution providing that a joint committee be appointed to visit said road, thoroughly examine the work and the business of the road, examine books and have authority to send for persons and papers.

The substitute was adopted, and the bill then passed its third and final reading.

Senator Troy moved that the use of the Senate Chamber be tendered to the electoral college of the State for its meeting at 12 M. to-morrow, and that the clerk of the Senate be instructed to inform Hon. D. G. Fowle, one of the electors, of this action.

The motion was adopted.

A message was received from the House, announcing that it had stricken out the preamble to the bill regarding the Western North Carolina Railroad, and asking concurrence.

The Senate upon motion concurred in the amendment.

Upon motion of Senator Scales the rules were suspended and Senate bill No. 90 regarding relief to F. W. Bell, Sheriff of Bertie county, was taken up.

The committee proposed a substitute, allowing all sheriffs or tax collectors who were such in 1873-'74 and '75, to collect arrears of taxes for those years.

Senators Justice and Graham, offered amendments which were lost.

The bill then passed its second reading.

Senator Graham opposed the substitute.

After other amendments and much debate, the bill was upon motion of Senator Latham, re-committed to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate then upon motion of Senator Holt adjourned until to-morrow morning at 10 o'clock.

On motion of Mr. Staples the rules were suspended and the resolution was adopted.

The resolution instructs the Joint Committee on Penal Institutions to report the number, names and sentences of convicts in the penitentiary, the number of employees and officers, what number of convicts are necessary to be kept in the penitentiary, and what force can be put to work upon the Western N. C. Railroad, &c.

After the preamble being stricken out, on the motion of Mr. Graves, the resolution passed its several readings.

By Mr Rose: A bill to amend section 2, chapter 210, Battle's Revisal. Committee on Judiciary.

By Mr. Singletary: A resolution for the revision of Battle's Revisal. Placed on calendar.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to restore silver as a legal tender in this State, introduced by Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, was taken up as the special order. The bill passed its second reading.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe: That the rules be suspended and the bill put on its third reading.

The motion was adopted, and the bill came up on its third reading.

After some debate Mr. Carter took the floor in explanation of the bill. He said that his object in introducing this bill was to relieve the debtor class of the people, who had been outraged and ruined by the law of Congress, demonetizing silver. He thought the law unconstitutional and not entitled to the respect of the American people, and especially the people of North Carolina. He argued that the control of the question as to what shall be a legal tender, belongs to the States, being one of their reserved rights, and hoped this State would assert its dignity and power in the premises. It would result in a repeal of the law of Congress if constitutional or cause, it to be superseded by general State laws if unconstitutional.

After some further debate the bill passed its third reading and was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to prevent malicious injury to personal property, was taken up as the second special order of the day.

Mr. Cobb, the introducer of the bill, explained the purview of the bill.

The bill passed its second reading and under a suspension of the rules the bill came up on its third reading and passed. It was ordered to be engrossed and sent to the Senate.

SPECIAL ORDER.

The bill to amend subdivision 24, section 3, chapter 28, Battle's Revisal, in regard to the maintainance of the poor was taken up as the third special order of the day.

[The bill prevents the hiring out at public auction any pauper, or hiring out publicly or privately any white pauper to a colored person.]

The question recurred on a substitute reported by the Judiciary Committee and it was adopted.

The question recurred on bill on its second reading.

Mr. Bagley, Republican, moved to strike out the words "white and colored" wherever they occur, also the words "to any person" and the words "to any colored person."

Mr. Bledsoe said that the bill reminded him of a bill of equity. It was a perfect flood of words. He moved to postpone the whole matter until Wednesday and print.

Mr. Staples said that the gentleman was correct. It was a bill of equity to protect the rights of the poor white people of the State.

Mr. Bledsoe said he did not understand the bill.

Mr. Staples said that that was the gentleman's misfortune, and not his (Mr. Staples') fault.

Williamson, colored, was sick and tired of this legislation on the color line.

Mr. Bagley said that was the object of his amendment. He did not think this question of color ought to be introduced into matters of legislation of this kind.

Mr. Staples—Is the gentleman in favor of hiring white people to colored persons?

Mr. Bagley—No, sir.

Williamson, (colored,)—The gentleman says that he does not wish white paupers hired to colored persons, does he think white people have a right to hire colored paupers?

Mr. Staples—Yes.

Mr. Bledsoe's motion to postpone was rejected.

Reynolds, colored, thought the words "white and colored" should be stricken out. If it was wrong to hire a white pauper to a colored person, it was equally wrong to hire a colored pauper to a white person.

Mr. Bagley's amendment was rejected.

Williamson, colored, offered an amendment that no colored pauper should be hired out to a white person.

Mr. Carter, of Buncombe, opposed the amendment on the ground that it would do great harm to colored paupers. In many counties the colored people are not able to take care of paupers. He was a better friend to the colored people in this case than the member who proposed this amendment, and so were the Democratic members in this House generally.

On motion of Mr. Staples, the vote by which the amendment of Mr. Bagley's amendment was rejected was reconsidered in order that the gentleman might have the benefit of the yeas and nays as he desired it.

The motion to reconsider was adopted.

The question recurred upon the amendment.

On the call of Mr. Staples, the previous question was ordered.

The yeas and nays were called on Mr. Bagley's amendment, and it was rejected by a vote of yeas 30; nays 69.

The question recurred on the amendment offered by Williamson, col. and it was rejected by a vote of yeas 41; nays 56. The question recurred upon the bill on its second reading. The yeas and nays were called and it passed by a vote of yeas 73; nays 22. This is the ballot:

Ayes—Abbott, Ardrey, Baxter, Beam, Bizzell, Brown, Bryant, Bryson, Carter, of Buncombe, Carter, of Hyde, Clark, of Bladen, Cobb, Cooper, Council, Davis, of Haywood, Dillard, Dunlap, Ennis, Ewing, Fennell, Fox, Fulcher, Gaither Geoffroy, Godwin, Graves, Gudger, Harriss, Hartsell, Haynes, Henderson, Horton, of Wilkes, Houk, Jarvis, Kenan, King, Leach, Lineback, M'Brayer, McCubbins, McIver, McLean McClure, McRae, Morning Morris Mosely, Parish, Peel, Pinnix, Powell, Ransom, Richardson, Roberts, Rose, Rowland, Rush, Sams Scott, Shackelford, Sharpe, Singeltary, Simpson, Smith, Staples, Stephenson, Swain, Todd, of Ashe, Todd, of Wake, Vaughan, Wilson, of Burke Winslow, Worth.

Nays—Bagley, Bledsoe, Braswell, Bunn Cale, Cary, Clarke, of Craven, Crews, Hood, Johnson, of Warren Johnston, of Washington, Lloyd, Ormond, Reynolds, Rogers, Simmons, Ward, of Chowan, Ward, of Bertie, White, Williamson, [illegible] of New Hanover, Wilson, [illegible] sylvania.

On motion of Mr. Staples [illegible] were suspended and the [illegible] upon its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Sta[illegible] ther consideration of th[illegible] postponed until to-morro[illegible] and ordered to be printed.

By consent, Mr. Carter of Buncombe, offered a resolution in favor of Josiah Turner, Jr. Referred to the Committee on Printing.

Adjourned.

GREENSBORO,

Proceedings of the Fortieth Session of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist E. Church, South, held at Greensboro, Commencing Wednesday, Nov. 29th, 1876.

[Report of the Daily News.]

FOURTH DAY.

GREENSBORO, N. C., Dec 2, 1876.

The Conference opened at the regular hour, Bishop Kavanaugh in the chair. Religious exercises by Rev Jas. E. Mann. Journal of yesterday read and approved.

J. J. Suttiff, Wm. F Needham, John T. Littlejohn, C. Burnett, F. R. Kayler, Owen Spille, and Charles M. Cook were elected local deacons.

The following were elected local elders: W. S. Creasey, R. L. Abernethy, W. W. Womack, F. D. Andrews, G. W. Heptinstall and J. H. Jenkins. M. C. Heptinstall was received from the Methodist Protestant Church and, on assuming the ordination vows, was recognized as a local elder.

P. L. Herman was appointed to receive subscriptions for the Southern Review.

J. B. Bobbitt offered a resolution requesting the Bishop to furnish a copy of his sermon, delivered on Thanksgiving day, for publication in the Conference minutes. Adopted.

J. B Bobbitt and B. Craven were appointed a committee on the publication of the minutes.

Messrs. Spain and Deshazo of the Virginia Conference were introduced.

H. T. Hudson reported from the committee on books and periodicals, recommending the books of the Nashville Publishing House, the Raleigh Christian Advocate, and recommending the re-election of J. B. Bobbitt as editor. Also recommending the various publications at Nashville. Report adopted.

B. Craven, C. M. Pepper, A. B Thompson, R. L. Abernethy and L Snell were appointed a committe on temperance.

The Conference then adjourned to engage in the Conference Centennial exercises. Rev. W S. Black was then introduced and spoke at length in the interest of the Conference Colleges and their relation to the Church. His appeals in behalf of these institutions were strong and forcible.

Mr. F. C. Robins, of Lexington, was then introduced and spoke at length in behalf of the same interest, showing that the cause of education is suffering more from lack of interest in the right direction than from the poverty so much bemoaned.

At this juncture the Committee on Education submitted their report No. 1, which served as a powerful argument in behalf of the various educational institutions which are under the fostering care of the Methodists of the whole State. The report was laid over for further action.

A vote of thanks was tendered to Messrs. Black and Robins, and copies of their addresses for the ministers.

Leave of absence was granted to N. M. Lawrence, A. G Headen and M. O. Sherrill.

The examination of character was taken up for Elders and a number passed. The Presiding Elders made verbal statements of the work on their Districts.

Various announcements were made respecting committee meetings, when the Conference adjourned until Monday morning at 9 o'clock

To-night will be the regular meeting of the Missionary Society, and, as is usual, a general good time is anticipated. Rev Dr. McFerrin, Secretary of the Missionary Society of the M. E. Church, South, and others, will address the meeting. In my next I will give your readers the results of the meeting—as it is usual to lift a collection on these occasions for the cause of Foreign Missions.

The business of the Conference drags along very tediously, so much time being spent in useless debate over unimportant matters, and the good Bishop Kavanaugh seems to have lost much of his former vim and despatch that is so valuable in a presiding officer.

To-morrow will be the "big day" for the city; all the pulpits in town, except the Episcopal and Catholic, are to be filled by members of the Conference, even the colored churches not being neglected. The ordination of Deacons will be at 11 o'clock A. M., and of Elders at 7 o'clock P. M.

The two great occasions of Conference and Thanksgiving bleaded in one has made chickens and all other et ceteras exceedingly tight, and your correspondent's last rooster went up this morning.

GREENSBORO, Dec. 4, 1876.

FIFTH DAY.

The Conference opened at 9½ o'clock A. M., Bishop Kavanaugh in the chair.

Religious exercises by Rev. J. R. Brooks.

Journal of yesterday read and approved.

The Bishop reported the ordinations as reported on Saturday.

A resolution was passed requesting H. T. Hudson to furnish a copy of his sermon before the under-graduates, for publication in the Advocate.

Leave of absence was granted to sundry brethren.

The annual examination of character was resumed and the remainder of the Elders passed.

E. W. Thompson asked for and received a superannuated relation.

Bennett T. Blake, John Jones, J. W. Floyd, S. B. Doser, G. E. Wyche, W. W. Aiken, W. B. Meacham, Henry Gray, J. N. Somers, W. S. Haltom, R. P. Bibb, and C. W. King, were continued in the superannuated relation.

Dr. McFerrin, Missionary Society, made remarks urging the claims of [illegible] Publishing House, and [illegible] circulating the peri[illegible] of the church.

[illegible] arrived the Con[illegible] select the place [illegible] session. Char[illegible]ern and Shelby of each place, Salisbury was chosen.

The examination of the class for the third year was called and the following were reported upon and passed to the fourth year: L. J. Holden, E. L Stacy, P. F W. Stamey, W. H. Watkins, T. P. England. W. M. D. Moore was placed in as superannuated at his own request.

Leave of absence was granted to a large number, both ministerial and lay.

A resolution relative to the Raleigh Centennial book, pledging the preachers to aid in its sale, was passed.

The committee on Sabbath schools made their report, showing a slight decrease in members, but a large increase efficiency and usefulness in this branch of church enterprise, and recommending various plans for their increased usefulness. The report was adopted.

The usual announcements of committee meetings were made, and the conference adjourned until to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

It is understood that the conference will adjourn to-morrow night, and so slowly has the business progressed that a huge amount of work will be crowded into the last day's proceedings, making it the most interesting day of the whole session.

Yesterday all the pulpits of the city were filled by members of the conference, morning and evening, but the Methodist Church was the great centre of attraction and the people flocked there until the house was filled to its utmost capacity, and hundreds had to turn away and seek other churches. All the sermons are highly spoken of and have doubtless accomplished good. The missionary meeting Saturday night was a decided success, and about $200 was raised for that cause, and it is a noteworthy fact that more attention is being given to that cause than for many years past. ### United States Circuit Court.

Court met yesterday at 10 o'clock, a. m., Judge Brooks presiding. Two cases against W. A. Cheatham, of Granville county, indicted for having tobacco not properly stamped, were dismissed. The civil docket was called over and judgment entered in a few cases. This docket will be called to-day peremptorily. Thus far the proceedings of this court have been singularly uninteresting. There is a great delay in the business on account of members of the bar not having prepared their cases, and being absent from the court room when their cases were called.

The court adjourned to meet this morning at 10 o'clock.

THE NEWS, Raleigh, N. C.

WE publish elsewhere to-day the address of the Democratic Committee now in New Orleans. This publication sets the Louisiana difficulty in a clear light. The State certainly went for Tilden; and it cannot be counted for Hayes without the perpetration of the grossest frauds.

THE Administration has beat a hasty retreat from its position towards South Carolina. The leaders in the conspiracy which overthrew the civil power of South Carolina on the 27th of November, now attempt to shift the entire responsibility upon the shoulders of a corporal. The excuse is too thin. The country can never be made to believe that the now famous corporal who examined and passed upon the credentials of the members of the South Carolina Legislature and judged of their rights to seats, did so on his own motion, or by order of citizen Dennis, Corporals, nor captains, nor colonels, nor generals, do not thus illegally interfere with State Legislatures, without orders from headquarters—which in this instance, was the White House.

IT is stated in Washington on good authority that Hayes once counted in, the administration means to leave the carpet-baggers and rogues in South Carolina and Louisiana to shift for themselves. It need occasion no surprise if the returning boards, having done their dirty work so far as giving the two States to Hayes is concerned, the administration will thereafter, namely, after next Wednesday, declare that it has no constitutional power to interfere, that the Legislature, which in both States canvass the votes for Governor, must constitute and organize themselves without Federal interference, and that the result they may declare must be accepted as final. In this case both South Carolina and Louisiana may yet hope for honest government. If this is the result, we will have to content ourselves, as a half loaf is better than no bread. It is not in the power of the South to prevent the consummation of this gigantic fraud.

HELP THE ORPHANS.

We present elsewhere to-day an appeal for the Oxford orphan asylum. Read it, and open your heart and your hand. You cannot aid a nobler charity; you cannot place your money where it will do more good.

Christmas is coming. It is the time for those who are blessed in this world's goods to remember the poor, to make gifts, to give alms, to do charity. Is there anywhere to be found in all this land, an institution which appeals more loudly to the generous impulses of the people of North Carolina? Can the gifts of charity be bestowed upon any more deserving than the little orphans sheltered at Oxford? If so, why pass them by.

This asylum is based upon the kind-heartedness, the liberality, the charitable inclinations of our people. What will be said of us if we permit it to fail? Would not the citizens of other States, where orphans are not neglected, point the finger of scorn at us? Would it not be said that we are illiberal, close-fisted, stingy? Who would in that case, look upon these fatherless and motherless little ones turned adrift upon a cold, hard world, and dare say that we were not uncharitable and heartless?

We have sustained this excellent institution so far, after a fashion.—Let us not only not weary in well-doing, but let us do better by it than ever before.

We would suggest that the citizens of North Carolina make the orphans at Oxford a grand Christmas gift, in the shape of a round sum of [illegible] That would be solid comfo[illegible]

RADICAL OFFICE-HOLDERS—A CLEAN SWEEP.

On the first day of the coming January, the Democratic party of North Carolina goes into complete power—if we except a portion of the Judiciary. We are immediately confronted with the question—what shall be the policy of our party with regard to appointments to offices now filled by Republicans?

Can there be but one answer? Is there room for a division of sentiment? We think not.

It is not too long since the close of the campaign which signalized this centennial year, to remember that a broom was selected as the most befitting and expressive emblem of our party, its principles and purposes. Brooms were crossed over speakers' stands; brooms were carried in processions; and brooms were raised amid the cheers of thousands to the tops of our flag-poles, as though in our fervor for reform we would sweep the very cob-webs from the sky.

This homely and most commonplace domestic implement was not selected without reason. It was not the product of mere fancy. It was the outcome of sound reason and of a patriotism that is true as the ringing steel. The party did not hurrah over it for nothing.

No. It meant something. It was the embodiment of the grand, predominating idea of our campaign—Reform. It signified that the Democratic party intended, if ever they got the upperhand, to sweep out Radicalism and Radicals from every office, from the White House down. The people so understood then; they understand it so now.

Shall we carry out this intention in North Carolina, now that we are about to be installed in power? Shall we set the Democratic broom a-going?

On general principles, there are the soundest reasons to sustain the view that Republicans should not be retained in office by the Democrats. It is presumptuous, we think, in Republicans to expect such manifestations of liberality. When, by the grace of Canby's sword and the disfranchising act of Congress, the Radicals came into power in 1868, they turned out all the Democratic office-holders and supplied their places, in a great degree, with some of the most degraded, Southern-hating, negro-loving, thieving carpet-baggers that ever cursed a country. Republicans, then, are estopped from complaining if the Democrats now follow their example and use the broom pretty freely.

The people of North Carolina have placed the Democratic party in power. They mean that that party shall fill the offices, control the institutions of the State, superintend the works of internal improvement, and manage their affairs generally. What else did they elect our candidates for? What would the people say, should they be told that the Democrats have declined to take charge of these works, and institutions and offices, as they were bid to do; and have left them in the keeping of Republicans? It would not take a Solomon to divine the response. Two years hence it would be heard in thunder tones, from the mountains to the sounding sea.

"Put none on guard but those who have proven themselves faithful," says our correspondent, "Citizen," in a letter which we print this morning. That is a piece of advice which it would not be well to pass by unheeded. It is the sentiment, we venture to say, of the Democratic masses everywhere in the State. It expresses briefly but strongly a feeling that is universal. "Put none on guard but those who have proven themselves faithful." This excludes all Radicals, whatever their personal characteristics, their capabilities, or their present intentions. We do not speak now of that class of men who quit the Republican ranks and joined the Democrats, in time to participate in the final struggle on the 7th of November.

As a matter of principle which none can deny, the party owes to those who have served it most faithfully the honors and emoluments which it has in its power to bestow.

If we cannot find in our own ranks men who are capable of filling the offices, acceptably, then it will be time enough to go to the Radical ranks to borrow such. We would blush for our party if we thought there was a single position in North Carolina which could not be filled with a suitable man from the Democratic ranks.

There is no lack of deserving and thoroughly capable Democrats, for the various public stations to be supplied; and there can be but one answer to the question which we propounded in the beginning. That answer is: our policy should be to make a clean sweep of the Radicals from every office, from the highest to the lowest, one and all.

THE New York Herald reflects the general sentiment of the country in the following paragraph:

If it should turn out that Mr. Hayes is fairly and legally elected it will be the duty of President Grant to protect his rights against attempts to prevent his induction into office. But if General Grant could be unwise enough to expose himself to the charge of procuring the election of Hayes by illegal and unwarranted interference [illegible] acquiesce in [illegible] a President of [illegible] only a Pre[illegible] without hi[illegible] Grant can[illegible]

THE DECISIVE DAY—THE PROGRAMME.

The electoral colleges in the several States meet to-day. It is stated in Washington, by high Republican authority, that the object of preventing the regular assemblage of the South Carolina Legislature by the interference of the troops and the action of Judge Bond, was to create a deadlock which should prevent any legislative action until after to-day, when the electors will meet and cast and certify the vote of South Carolina for Hayes.

The Louisiana returning board will certainly give the State to Hayes. To secure a pretext for this, the returning board suddenly threw out 5,000 naturalized votes in New Orleans. This action was rendered necessary by the fact, but recently developed, that Tilden's majority in the State could not be overcome in any other way. The other devices—hiring supervisors of election to keep the returns out of the way, causing the destruction of returns and records by secret agents and making charges of intimidation, proved insufficient to make a sure thing of it, and so this last card was held in reserve. It is well known that there are certain defects in the electors. Two of them are Federal office-holders, Brewster being United States Surveyor General and Levisee Commissioner in the United States Court. To cure these defects, it is said that these two electors have been ordered to absent themselves to-day from the meeting of the electoral college, whereupon the two vacancies will be filled as the State law provides—by the other Republican electors.

Florida will be returned for Hayes of course.

It is now perfectly apparent that the electoral college at Washington will have 185 Hayes electors bearing certificates of election; and but 184 Tilden electors bearing the required certificates. The Republican idea is that Congress cannot go behind these certificates. To sustain this view the whole power of the Federal administration will be brought into play.

To checkmate this game is the heavy work before the Democratic House.

A LONG, cold winter is before us. Remember the orphans.

PERSONAL.

The Bonaparte family are worth $20,000,000 in property.

It is said that Secretary Fish condemns Grant's Southern policy.

The Baroness Willoughby d'Eresby lets her salmon streams for over $2,000 a year.

Hayward, the wealthy Californian, is to be remarried to the wife from whom he was divorced.

A French admiral and his family have been poisoned with wine that was found to contain sugar of lead.

Colonel Peter Donohue is traveling around the United States in a palace car made for his own use. He is now at Patterson, N. J. Twenty-five years ago he had a blacksmith shop in a tent on the beach at San Francisco.

It is not known that Cardinal Antonelli gave rise in his own person to the expression of "beautifully ugly." The appellation was given to him by an English author, whose opinion was asked of the Cardinal's appearance.

Viscount Startford de Redcliff, the great diplomatist of England, who before the Crimean war so long kept the Czar Nicholas at bay, has finished his ninetieth year, but, though he has the gout, he takes great interest in European politics.

A romantic marriage took place in Newark N. J., a few days ago. The bride is a wealthy Texan widow of about 52 years, and the groom an employee in the Communipaw stock yards, is only 22, while the wedding is said to have been the immediate result of the lady's use of her leap year privilege, and that after less than 24 hours' acquaintance. The bride owns extensive cattle ranches and about two weeks ago was obliged to visit the Communipaw cattle yards on business. While there she was attacked by an infuriated steer, which rushed at her, and was only prevented from fatally injuring her by the presence of Gustave Kimisch, who seized the brute by the horns and enabled the lady to escape. On the following day he received a note requesting him to call on her at the Metropolitan hotel, where she proposed to him and was accepted. They were married at the residence of the groom's sister, and immediately started southward. The groom has been extremely poor, while the bride is understood to possess immense wealth. She was in early life a New England schoolmistress, but went south immediately after her first marriage.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Ennis county, Texas, cast over 2,500 votes for Tilden and not one for Hayes.

The President of Yale voted for Hayes and the President of Harvard, so 'tis stated, voted for Tilden.

A President who can name his successor at the point of the bayonet may be said to transmit his power by sharp practice.

Boston Herald: The South Carolina canvassers think their Moses rushing in the bull-dozers is in striking contrast to the ancient Moses dozing in the bull rushes.

Washington Star: It is understood that the Democratic organ to be established in this city will be edited by Manton Marble and Mr. Chamberlayne, late of the New York World.

The Springfield Republican says: "There is a feeling by no means uncommon or unnatural that in this crisis Grant's old desire for a third term is returning upon him."

Rome Sentinel: "This Louisiana business is perverting the morals and humanity of the nation. A Rome cat [illegible] week returned a count of seven kittens and then the lady of the house assumed ministerial and clerical powers, and threw six of them out."

Brooklyn Argus: The goddess of [illegible] of South Carolina appeals to Chamberlain for information in vain. His stereotyped reply is, "See Dennis." She searches the calendar of divinities for the name of Dennis, and not finding it, comes to the conclusion that Dennis is a sort of transmogrified Mrs. Harris.

Exchange: "Gen. Grant takes the deepest interest in all scientific questions," says a recent writer. Evolution for instance as manifested in the conversion of a Tilden majority into one for Hayes. The strength of materials, for another example, as in calculating how great a strain our constitution and governmental system will stand.

E. W. M. Mackey, the speaker of rump Legislature of South Carolina, is not a negro as stated in some of the journals, but a white man, a nephew of Judge Mackey, who has been frequently named as opposed to Chamberlain. The speaker Mackey is from Charleston, where he has been a trial justice. He is adroit, educated and capable. His competitor for the speakership was a colored man.

When Zach Chandler telegraphed to Stearns of Florida—'Florida must be made Republican; troops and money will be furnished"—the editor of the Bowling Green Pantagraph swelled up brimful of honest indignation, and called violently on his muse to fill him brimful of direct cruelty from top to toe, with samples of the most forcible English and "raging iambics," and the following is what relieved him:

Curses on thee, thou lone Pariah,
Dastard gouty Chandler;
Blistered be thy tongue, Zachariah,
Thou old bloated Michigander.

Christmas Gifts to the Orphans.

To the Editor of the News:

Two years ago a noble band, residents of Petersburg, Virginia, loaded a car with the substantials of life, and sent it as a Xmas offering from affectionate hearts, to their good old mothers' orphans, in the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Twelve months ago, the merchants of Norfolk, Virginia, followed this praiseworthy example and filled a car to the brim, with every variety from their abundant stores, continuing to gladden the orphan's heart.

Now, dear friends, of this grand work, who will take the lead in North Carolina in loading cars as our brethren in Virginia, to make merry hearts in the asylum, on the return of that day, when Christ came to manifest the kindness and love of God, setting us the example of imparting joy, and urging us to make others, if possible, as happy as ourselves? You need not my assurance of the tenfold increase of happiness when gathering around the cheerful Xmas fires with dear ones in childhood's home, if you have been the means of giving pleasure to those who have no expectation of bright cheerful smiles, and kind looks from fond parents. No reward is offered. The very act of extending kindnesses to the needy is so perfectly delightful that I am sure you will contend for this great boon on December 25th, 1876. Yes, glorious '76, that has crowned the labors of the husbandmen with such abundant success. North Carolinians, North, South, East and West, have just cause for cheerful thanksgiving to the Giver of all good. Go to work, men. Ye that have benevolent hearts in every town and village, and send loaded cars with lightning speed to North Carolina's orphans by December 25th.

Let not Durham, with its gigantic growth, excel the prosperous cities of Charlotte, Wilmington, and our grand old Capitol, with the towns of Greensboro, Salisbury, Asheville, Salem, Newbern, Fayetteville, Edenton, and dear old Elizabeth City, in their contributions for this good work. Let the cars groan under their burden, as they are brought free to Henderson depot, and may Christmas day be rich to all who respond, with the voice of joy and gladness sounding in the houses, where a father's love, a mother's tenderness, and the bright happy meeting of brothers, sisters, friends and lovers, will have a memorial written on their hearts "never to fade away, from having done all they could" to sustain the Oxford Orphan Asylum.

A Clean Sweep.

To the Editor of the News:

I see from your valuable paper of a few days ago that you have been selected as the organ and standard bearer by our prudent and intelligent Legislature as public printer, and of course you will be the organ of our chief magistrate after the first of January. There is a great work before you as a public journal to present to His Excellency certain improvements in the different departments. The first that will attract your attention is who shall be appointed to conduct our asylum and deaf and dumb institution. Of course Dr. Grissom is a polished gentleman, and if it had not been for him and a few other natives that had some respectability, there never would have been a Republican party in North Carolina. I think there is material enough in North Carolina among the profession to select a suitable doctor to fill Dr. Grissom's place. We have in the State, perhaps, as much ability as any State in the Union. I will commence with your own beautiful city of Raleigh. You have Drs. Burke Haywood, Hill, McKee, Hines, Royster and Fab. J. Haywood, Jr., all of them well qualified for such a position. I may also refer you to Charlotte, where there are Drs. Graham, Jones and Miller. Salisbury has Drs. Summerell and Whitehead also. Wilmington, Fayetteville, Tarboro and Newbern has each her distinguished physicians.

The only object I have in writing this article is to call your attention to the important fact, as an organ of the State put none on guard but those who have proven themselves faithful

I want to name a gentlemen for district attorney, Gen. W. R. Cox, of Raleigh.

I would like to mention another name for U. S. Marshal of North Carolina, Richard S. Harris, Sheriff of the glorious county of Cabarrus.—This county was the first in the State that placed ex Gov. Z. B. Vance in nomination for Governor. I think that our people will admit that all our candidates are more or less indebted to Gov. Vance for their large majorities in the State. Gov. Vance had to take all the abuse of the entire Radical papers in the State and also every other Radical paper in the United States, but after all they could say against him, he has regenerated, redeemed and disenthralled the old North State now and forever.

The Democratic Committee in New Orleans have issued the following address to the people of the United States:

To the people of the United States:—

On our arrival here, in casting about for approaches to the officials who control the elections in this State, we discovered that they were all of one political party; that the Governor had appointed none but republican supervisors of elections, and that the returning officers constituting the State Board were of the same political school. Influenced by these inauspicious surroundings our thoughts and hopes were turned toward the eminent gentlemen who have been elected by the President to be present and see that the Board of Canvassers made a fair count of the votes actually cast, and on the 14th of November we invited these gentlemen to meet and confer with us. This co-operation was declined, but we, nevertheless, have reason to believe that to this correspondence may be attributed the invitation to us on the 18th ult., by the Returning Board, to attend and be present at its meetings as spectators and witnesses of its proceedings. Through this courtesy and the services of a competent stenographer we became possessed of all essential facts developed on the face of the official papers. We have been furnished with a certified copy of the duplicate statements of votes made by the commissioners of election at each place of voting in the State; and from these statements it appears that the Tilden electors received the following votes, to-wit:

| | | | |
| McEnery | 83,712 | De Blanc | 83,667 |
| Wickliffe | 83,880 | Seay | 83,842 |
| St. Martin | 83 676 | Colbb | 83,579 |
| Poche | 83 529 | Cross | 83 652 |

And the Hayes electors received the following votes to-wit:—

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Kellogg | 77,152 | Marks | 75 221 |
| Burch | 77,154 | Levissee | 75 370 |
| Joseph | 74 889 | Brewster | 75,457 |
| Sheldon | 74,844 | Jeffrion | 75,597 |

The result of the vote for Presidential electors as disclosed on the face of the returns opened by the Returning Board in our presence:

FOR THE TILDEN ELECTORS.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| McEnery | 82 223 | De Blanc | 82,065 |
| Wickliffe | 82 326 | Seay | 82,242 |
| St Martin | 82 129 | Colb | 81,959 |
| Poche | 82,036 | Cross | 82,109 |

FOR THE HAYES ELECTORS.

| | | | |
|---|---|---|---|
| Kellogg | 77,023 | Marks | 75 087 |
| Burch | 76 983 | Levissee | 75,157 |
| Joseph | 74,642 | Brewster | 75,270 |

In most cases the returns opened by the Returning Board corresponded with the certified copies of the statements of commissioners of election furnished us. The most material difference arose from the failure of the Supervisors of East Baton Rogue, Tangipahoa and Orleans to forward the statement of votes from voting places in their respective parishes.

In thirty-five out of the thirty-eight States in the Union these figures would be conclusive, and no one would claim that Tilden and Hendricks were not entitled to the electoral vote of the State; but in Louisiana a tribunal has been set up which on former occasions has overthrown the will of the people, as expressed at the polls, and for which the power is now claimed at its discretion to change the result of the popular vote of the recent election. In view, however of the returns and the law and facts which should control the Returning Board, with which we have made ourselves familiar, we have no hesitation in saying that the result shown by votes actually cast cannot be changed without palpable abuse of the letter and spirit of the law governing the Returning Board and a manifest perversion of the facts before it. Irregularities have been committed in some instances by officers conducting elections and in making returns, but they are about as much on one side as the other, and as to intimidation and violence, or other illegal acts preventing a free and fair election, there is evidence on both sides, but not of such a character as to affect the general result. In most instances the acts of violence proceed from mere lawlessness, as in the case of Henry and Eliza Pinkston, and had no connection with politics.

It is a significant fact that in the parishes where it is alleged that voters were kept from the polls by intimidation, the total vote of such parishes was as large as at any time heretofore, and in the whole State is 1,500 above any vote heretofore cast. An honest and fair canvass of the returns, even under the Louisiana law, cannot materially reduce Tilden's majority, as shown on the face of the returns.

THE PROSTRATE STATE.

Chamberlain Declared Elected.

His MAJORITY PLACED AT 3,044.

Hampton Announces His Purpose to be Governor.

PROCEEDINGS IN THE SUPREME COURT.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Dec. 5.—State constables have replaced the troops at the State House. A large number of special sergeants-at-arms were placed at the doors of the Senate and House. Troops are still retained in the State House for the purpose of protecting the Governor. A sentinel paces in front of Chamberlain's door. The Senate and House in joint session canvassed the vote Edgefield and Laurens were thrown out, and the Democratic Senators retired. Chamberlain was declared elected by 3,044.

Adjourned.

It is expected that Chamberlain will be inaugurated to-morrow. The Hampton House was in session all day. Their action was unimportant, except that they gained two more members from the Mackey House, making their membership 62 holding certificates of the board of State canvassers, or 70 including the Edgefield and Laurens delegations, who hold certificates of the Supreme Court. Hampton spoke this evening, declaring that he intended to be Governor.

In the Supreme Court argument was heard in application for a mandamus compelling the Secretary of State to deliver the returns to Speaker Wallace, and the papers were taken under advisement. The argument on the quo warranto proceedings, requiring the Hayes electors to show by what authority they exercise the functions of office, will be heard to-morrow morning. The electors meet to-morrow.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5—Noon.—Senate.—In the Senate Mr. Edmunds moved to take up the resolution, submitted by him yesterday, ordering an inquiry into the late election in the various Southern States, which motion led to a lengthy debate, after which the motion to take up the resolution was agreed to—Yeas 38; nays 22, a strict party vote.

House.—The morning hour was wasted in a parliamentary debate.

Plaister, of Maine, claimed he had voted against the suspension of the rules for the appointment of committees to go South.

Banks claims that the records should be corrected and the correction defeats the resolution ordering the committees. An early solution is not expected.

The Southern committees are arranged to provide for five sub-committees in Louisiana. Three in South Carolina; two in Florida, with two Democrats and one Republican on each. Thompson, of Massachusetts, is chairman of the Florida committee. All the committees leave to-night.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—Night.—HOUSE.—The question of the appointment of select committees to proceed to Louisiana, Florida and South Carolina was re-opened immediately after the reading of the journal in the shape of a motion to correct the journal, made by Plaister, of Maine, who asserted he had voted yesterday in the negative on that resolution, but that his vote had not been recorded. As the change of this vote would defeat the resolution which has got the necessary two-thirds, majority only by a tie vote 156 to 78, the right of correction was challenged by the Democratic side, but the Speaker, after a long discussion, decided that the journal must be corrected. This decision gave great pleasure to the Republican side of the House, but their triumph was of short duration, for immediately a like correction of the journal was made by Fuller, of Indiana, who had yesterday voted aye and whose vote had not been recorded. With these corrections of the journal, the vote stood 157 to 79, and the Speaker giving his casting vote in the affirmative, the resolution was carried by the necessary two-thirds majority.

The result was greeted with applause of the Democratic side of the House.

Saturday, Dec. 8, was assigned for eulogies on the late Speaker Kerr.

The message was then read.

The Speaker announced the following select committee on Louisiana: Morrison, of Illinois; Jenks, of Pennsylvania; McMahon, of Ohio; Lynde, of Wisconsin; Blackburn, of Kentucky; Meade, of New York; House, of Tennessee, Phelps, of Connecticut; New, of Indiana; Ross, of New Jersey; Townsend, of Pennsylvania; Danforth, of Ohio; Hurlburt, of Illinois; Crapo, of Massachusetts; Joyce, of Vermont.

On Florida—Thompson, of Massachusetts; Debalt, of Missouri; Walling, of Ohio; Hopkins, of Pennsylvania; Garfield, of Ohio and Donnell, of Minnesota.

On the South Carolina committee the name of Cochrane, of Pennsylvania, was substituted for that of Stenger, of Pennsylvania, excused on account of illness in his family.

SENATE.—Morton submitted a resolution looking to the amendment of the Constitution providing for the election of President by Congressional districts.

Mr. Edmund's resolution reported yesterday was adopted.

Adjourned.

WASHINGTON.

A Report that Florida Has Gone for Tilden.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 5.—The report from Florida that the vote had been cast for Tilden, causes intense excitement. Nothing yet from Florida, South Carolina or Louisiana through regular channels.

The Louisiana Swindle—Hayes Counted in—Everything Counted for the Republicans.

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 5.—The declaration of the returning board give the lowest Hayes elector 3,437 majority, and highest 4,567 majority. It is understood that they give the entire State ticket 3,500 majority, and a good majority in the Legislature.

SYNOPSIS OF THE PRESIDENTIAL MESSAGE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 5.—The President commenced with a recapitulation of the events and his official acts of the past eight years. He said mistakes have been made as all can see, and I admit, but it seems to me oftener in the selections made of the assistants appointed to aid in carrying out the various duties of administering the government, in nearly every case selected without a personal acquaintance with the appointee, but upon recommendations of the representatives chosen directly by the people.

It is impossible where so many trusts are to be allotted that the right parties should be chosen in every instance. History shows that no administration from the time of Washington to the present has been free from these mistakes, but I leave comparisons to history, claiming only that I have acted in every instance from a conscientious desire to do what was right, constitutional and within the law and for the very best interests of the whole people. The failures have been errors of judgment, not of interest.

FINANCES.

The message says taxes have been reduced within the last seven years nearly $300,000,000, and the national debt has been reduced in the same time over $435,000,000 by substituting bonds. The annual interest on the debt has been reduced $80,000 000 per annum. The balance of trade has changed from $130,000 000 against us to $20,000,000 in our favor, and he believes the balance of trade will continue in our favor, and the pledge of Congress to resume specie payments in 1879, will be easily redeemed, even in the absence of further much desired legislation.

THE INDIAN POLICY.

The policy adopted towards the Indians has been humane, and has substantially ended hostilities in the whole land, except in the Black Hills and approaches thereto.

FOREIGN NATIONS.

Relations with foreign nations continue friendly. The centennial exhibition is alluded to as promotive of good feeling and better acquaintance with foreign nations.

Alluding to the reductions of allowances for the diplomatic service, the President cannot escape the conclusion that in some instances the withholding of appropriations will prove an expensive economy, and that the small retrenchment secured by a change of grade in certain diplomatic posts is not an adequate consideration for the loss of influence and importance, which will attend our foreign representatives under this reduction.

THE ENGLISH EXTRADITION TREATY.

He reserves for another communication a statement of the questions with Great Britain regarding the extradition treaty.

MEXICAN TROUBLES.

The subject of the troubles on the Rio Grande is under consideration between the United States and Mexico. The President asks legislation which may provide for the payment of the awards of the Mexican claims commission.

FRAUDULENT NATURALIZATION.

He recommends legislation to prevent fradulent naturalization, and on the subject of expatriation and election of nationality in the interest of emigrants. he suggests a new tribunal for the settlement of the claims of aliens against the United States. Other governments are in advance of us in this respect.

THE NEW STATE OF COLORADO.

The President states the provisions of the act of Congress for admitting Colorado into the Union, and that he issued a proclamation to that effect.

THE ARMY.

Additional appropriations for the army are asked.

SOUTH PASS IMPROVEMENTS.

He says the improvement of the South Pass of the Mississippi river under James B. Eads, and his associates is progressing favorably.

The navy is in a condition as effective as possible within the means and authority given the department.

BLOODY SHIRTISM.

A few post masters in the Southern States have expressed great apprehension of their personal safety on account of their connection with the postal service, and have specially requested that their reports of apprehended danger should not be made public, lest it should result in the loss of their lives, but no positive testimony of interference has been submitted, except in the case of a mail messenger at Spartanburg, South Carolina, who reported that he had been violently driven away while in charge of the mails on account of his political affiliations. An assistant superintendent of the railway mail service investigated this case and reported that the messenger had disappeared from his post, leaving his work to be performed by a substitute. The Postmaster General adds that the case is sufficiently suggestive to justify him in recommending that a more severe punishment should be provided for the offense of assaulting any person in charge of the mails or of retarding or otherwise obstructing them by threats of personal injury.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

The President calls the attention of Congress to the necessity of throwing greater safeguards over the method of choosing and declaring the election of President.

COMPULSORY EDUCATION.

He says: The compulsory support of the "free school and the disfranchisement of all who cannot read and write the English language after a fixed probation would meet with hearty approval."

SANTO DOMINGO.

The President makes an elaborate defence of his recommendation for the annexation of Santo Domingo. After describing the commercial advantages that would have accrued, he says the Cuban question would have been settled long ago in favor of free Cuba. The President adds and concludes that the Island of Santo Domingo is but sparsely settled, while it has an area sufficient for the profitable employment of several millions of people. The soil would have soon fallen into the hands of United States capitalists. The products are so valuable in commerce that emigration there would have been encouraged. The emancipated race of the South would have found there a congenial home where their civil rights would not be disputed, and where their labor would be so much sought after that the poorest among them could have found the means to go there in cases of great apprehension and cruelty, such as has been practiced upon them in many places within the last eleven years. Whole communities would have sought refuge in Santo Domingo. I do not suppose the whole race would have gone, nor is it desirable that they should go. Their labor is desirable, and indispensable almost where they now are. But the possession of this territory would have left the negro master of the situation, by enabling him to demand his rights at home on pain of finding them elsewhere. I do not present these views now as a recommendation for a renewal of the subject of annexation, but I do refer to it to vindicate my previous action in regard to it.

EXIT GRANT.

With the present Congress my official life terminates. It is not probable that public affairs will ever again receive attention from me, further than as a citizen of the republic, always taking a deep interest in the honor, integrity and prosperity of the whole land.

(Signed,) U. S. GRANT.
Executive Mansion, Dec. 5, 1876

The New Electoral Imbroglio.

OMAHA, Dec. 5.—Judge Savage held a night session to hear the petition enjoining the Republican electors. The Republicans are making energetic efforts to get a quorum at the extra session of the Legislature at Lincoln.

Strong Nerves an Attainable Blessing.

There are many who have never known the blessing of strong nerves, having been born with weak ones. Those who have suffered dozens of nerve powder ca., by contrast, more fully appreciate the magnitude of that loss. The true way to repair it is to invigorate the system through the medium of improved digestion, secretion, and the establishment of a regular habit of body, three results invariably accomplished by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters when in urges the borough conversion of the food into pure, nourishing blood, from which the nerves, in common with every other part of the bodily economy gather vigor, the grand prerequisite of health. The great objection to sedatives and narcotics is that they not only exercise an influence, but are always followed by a hurtful reaction. Such is far from being the case with the Bitters, the primary action of which is most salutary, and whose after effects are beneficial in the extreme.

From the Methodist Protestant, Baltimore, Md.: For invalids and those in delicate health, we know nothing better than Colden's Liebig's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator. We recommend it from personal knowledge as carefully prepared and being all it claims.
